Army Court Puts Off Soldier's Appeal

JERUSALEM, Monday. — The Military Supreme Court here today postponed for a year the hearing of the appeal of Rav-Samuel Melech Reichert against a 10-year sentence for passing on the grounds that the appellant was "mentally incapable" of understanding the proceedings.

The defense attorney, Mr. Ben-Jonny, has applied to the Supreme Court in Jerusalem for a writ of mandamus, ordering the Military Court to hear the appeal.

Convicted in May
 Reichert, 24, a former clerk in G.H.Q., was convicted last May for having turned over military information to two members of the Communist Party, Uri Winter and Gustav Gulebner. When his sentence on the first of three counts was read at that time, he collapsed. The judgment on the other counts was read the following day. He was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment on each count, the sentences to run concurrently.

According to medical testimony today, Reichert is still suffering from nervous shock. The Military Court today consisted of two officers — three of the rank of Alot-Mishnah, and two of Ratan-Adar.

Rav-Samuel Melech Reichert appeared for the prosecution.

Haifa Council Votes to Put Laymen on Committees

HAIFA, Monday. — Haifa's Municipal Council Executive was today completed by the election of Mr. Ya'akov Katz (Poalei Agudat Israel) as second Deputy Mayor.

He was supported by the seven Histadrut and two Religious Bloc delegates. The other parties abstained.

The Mayor, Mr. Aba Hushi, steering the Council clear of repetitions, debates and of irrelevant formalities, put to the vote an Executive proposal to elect 21 advisory committees, and to include laymen as members.

The Council then elected a Finance Committee, a Social Welfare Committee, and a three-man sub-committee for the drawing up of methods of procedure.

The Council also decided to allot £1,000 for the purchase of a picture by E. Kiklik, whose paintings are now at exhibition in Haifa.

Ripped Trousers Results in Arrests
 Yehoshua Yair, a tailor of 14 Gaza Road, Jerusalem, recently received a pair of trousers to repair and noticed that they had been badly ripped inside the pockets he found a note from "Meir to Meir."

He described a meeting of the two, and suggested they get "46 size balls."

It appeared suspicious to the tailor, who called the police.

Yesterday, in the Magistrate's Court, Meir Levy and Mordecai Lopes were remanded for trial in the District Court on a charge of conspiring to rob a newspaper kiosk on Jaffa Road. The police charged that the "balls" referred to in the note were really "bullets."

ULTIMATUM GIVEN TO 'LAMIFNEH'
 TEL AVIV, Monday. — The Hapoel Hamizrachi Centre, which met until the early hours of this morning following the walk-out of members of the Lamifneh faction, decided to give the faction one week in which to decide to return to the Party.

It is believed that after that date a new Centre will be formed without Lamifneh members. This would mean a complete split in the party.

Shragai Replies To Court Order
 In response to an order nisi to show cause why he should not refrain from inviting Rabbi Cohen to take his seat as a Jerusalem councillor, Mayor S.Z. Shragai submitted an affidavit yesterday in which it was stated that the Rabbi's election had been approved by the Election Committee.

It also was pointed out that Rabbi Cohen's election was gazetted on December 17, and that no Court has ruled that the Rabbi is ineligible to assume his duties.

Impresarios Lobby Against Tax Law
 The managers of five Hebrew theatres yesterday lobbied in the Knesset against the draft law which would in effect revoke the exemption of theatres from the stamp tax.

Representatives of Habimah, Ohel, the Chamber Theatre, Matshen and Li La Lo conferred with Mr. D.Z. Fishman, chairman of the Finance Committee, and individual members of the Committee. They claimed that their balance sheets showed that the income of the theatres was hardly enough to pay performers as it was, and that they were not in a position to pay additional taxes.

Brodetaky to Confer With Students
 A delegation of students is scheduled to confer today with Professor S. Brodetaky, President of the Hebrew University, on the five-day strike which has resulted in some 1,800 students in all the faculties absenting themselves from classes in protest against the University's failure to hold examinations in two sittings, as the students have asked.

A general meeting of the student body is scheduled to take place tomorrow evening at Ratisbonne College in Jerusalem to discuss future action.

Shortages Make 370 Immigrants Jobless
 JAFFA, Monday. — The shortage of cement and building materials has caused unemployment for 370 persons in the Bat Yam suburb.

The Local Council's public works plans have been partly suspended, and only 70 persons are being given from three to four days' employment a week.

Ticket 'Scalpers' Arrested in T.A.
 TEL AVIV, Monday. — Three suspected ticket scalpers arrested in front of the Ophir Cinema here this week-end reportedly in possession of more than 120 tickets, were remanded for 15 days each by the Magistrate's Court here today. A fourth suspect arrested near the Migdalor Cinema was also remanded.

Near the Eden Cinema today, two suspected infiltrators, who are believed to have participated in a number of burglaries, were arrested. A bottle of cocaine was allegedly found in the possession of one of them.

TWO RETURNED
 Shmuel Ben Michael Aslan, 80, of Jerusalem, and Binyamin Levy, 15, of Rishon Le-Zion, who had been imprisoned by the Arab Legion after crossing into Jordan territory, were returned on Sunday to Israeli authorities at Mandelbaum Gate.

Alignment with U.K. Fires, Floods, Fuel Cuts Policy Attacked

"Blunder," the General Zionist daily, yesterday attacking the British U.N. Delegation views which Britain is unwilling to sponsor officially. The paper did not object to Israel's holding certain views on international affairs in common with Britain, but it held that Israel was at present following too closely the line of those whose Palestine policy is to the rift between the Yishuv and Britain.

"Hatzofeh," the Mizrahi organ, on the other hand, considered Israel's latest U.N. proposals on Korea to have demonstrated once again her independent stand on world problems.

"The paper felt that this would lead to Israel's progressive decline at the polls."
